Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

Q1: Is Mercury Browser compatible with all operating systems?

A1: While Mercury Browser strives for broad compatibility, the availability of official builds varies. Currently, support is prioritized for Windows, macOS, and Linux, though support for other systems might be available through community builds or third-party initiatives. Always check the official website for the most up-to-date compatibility information.

Mercury Browser User Manual

Q2: How does Mercury Browser protect my privacy compared to other browsers?

A2: Mercury Browser employs several strategies to enhance user privacy. These include a built-in ad blocker that prevents tracking through advertisements, a tracker blocker that prevents websites from monitoring browsing activity, and a strong emphasis on HTTPS connections which encrypt data transmission, making it more difficult for third parties to intercept your online activity. This differs from other mainstream browsers that often prioritize data collection for targeted advertising and other purposes.

Q3: Can I sync my bookmarks and settings across multiple devices?

A3: Currently, cross-device synchronization for bookmarks and settings is not a built-in feature of Mercury Browser. However, the developers are actively exploring this functionality and may implement it in future updates. In the meantime, manual backup and restoration of bookmarks and settings is a suitable alternative.

Q4: How can I report a bug or suggest a feature improvement?

A4: Typically, the Mercury Browser project will have a dedicated support channel or forum on their website or associated communities (e.g., Github, Reddit). These platforms are the most effective way to provide feedback, report bugs, and suggest improvements. Providing detailed information about the issue, including steps to reproduce it, significantly assists the development team in resolving the problem.

Q5: Is Mercury Browser open-source?

A5: The open-source nature of Mercury Browser would need to be verified on their official website. Open-source projects often have their code publicly available on platforms like GitHub, allowing community contributions and increased transparency.

Q6: What is the difference between Mercury Browser and other privacy-focused browsers?

A6: While many browsers emphasize privacy, Mercury Browser often differentiates itself by a particular focus on specific aspects, such as a particularly aggressive ad and tracker blocking or unique features that aren't found in competitors. Comparing specific features on the websites of competing browsers will help you identify the best option for your needs.

Q7: Does Mercury Browser support extensions from other browser stores?

A7: Mercury Browser typically has its own extension store, and compatibility with extensions from other browsers like Chrome or Firefox is usually limited. Checking the browser's documentation is necessary to confirm if any extensions from other stores might be compatible or if workarounds exist.

Q8: How do I uninstall Mercury Browser?
